As Efan receives incredible news, he, as well as Llŷr and Elen, realise that hindsight is a wonderful thing... they perhaps should have included Mali in the plans for the future. Efan's hope is that Mali will understand the situation.

John doesn't understand what was on Rhys' mind selling Trystan such a cheap car, and it turns into a messy argument. Lucky Caitlin was there to keep things calm.. Unfortunately, even Caitlin can't predict what the culmination of every argument.

Efan's life takes a new turn as he tries to cope with what happened, and Llŷr tries to calm his fears by doing everything in his power to prevent his son from completely destroying his life.
